Globalization, Knowledge and Society:
Readings from International Sociology

edited by Martin Albrow and Elizabeth King

Contents

Foreword (Margaret S. Archer) 1

Introduction (Martin Albrow) 3

Towards a Universal Social Science
Introduction 17
MARGARET S. ARCHER. Resisting the Revival of Relativism 19
AGNES HELLER. Sociology as the Defetishisation of Modernity 35
PIOTR SZTOMPKA. Conceptual Frameworks in Comparative Inquiry: Divergent or Convergent? 47

Internationalising Sociology
Introduction 61
EDWARD A. TIRYAKIAN. Sociology's Great Leap Forward: The Challenge of Internationalisation 63
ORLANDO FALS BORDA. The Application of Participatory-Action Research in Latin America 79

Creating Indigenous Sociologies
Introduction 101
AKINSOLA A. AKIWOWO. Contributions to the Sociology of Knowledge from an African Oral Poetry 103
M. AKIN. MAKINDE. Asuwada Principle: An Analysis of Akiwowo's Contributions to the Sociology of Knowledge from an African Perspective 119
O.B. LAWUYI and OLUFEMI TAIWO. Towards an African Sociological Tradition: A Rejoinder to Akiwowo and Makinde 135

One World Society
Introduction 155
IMMANUEL WALLERSTEIN. Societal Development, or Development of the World-System? 157
ERICH WEEDE. Rent-Seeking or Dependency as Explanations of Why Poor People Stay Poor 173